Beaufort, S. C. Dec. 27, 1877.

The school ship Saratoga is expected shortly to spend the winter in our harbor.

We are indebted to Hon. Johnson Hagood for a copy of his annual report as Comptroller General.

Paymaster Allen whose face has been so familiar to us since the arrival of the New Hampshire has been ordered to be relieved and placed on waiting orders.

The British bark Dictator, Capt. Shamper, arrived on Tuesday 47 days from Liverpool to Robbins, Bodington & Co. to load with lumber for an English port.

The Fantastics on Christmas turned out in large numbers and the general get up of the costumes reflected great credit on the colored men who participated in the parade. This is the first time the colored people have turned out in this fashion and the display far surpassed the exhibition of any of the parades by the whites on former occasions.

The sale of delinquent lands will begin next Monday without fail and there is but a short time left for the negligent property owners to save their lands. In the list published are found the names of many who are able to pay their taxes, and as the list has been carefully revised by the treasurer and auditor it is supposed to be free from errors.

We have received from Dr. Leiby, Health Officer, Charleston, a communication in answer to an article signed "People" published in THE TRIBUNE on Nov. 15th., regarding the change in the quarantine laws. The article will be published in our next issue.

Christmas eve was a pleasant time for the children of the Episcopal church Sunday school. The driving rain did not prevent a large turnout to see the beautiful Christmas trees set up in the Episcopal chapel and the Baptist church. The trees were loaded with many and varied presents and every child was remembered and many were loaded down with their numerous presents. Rev. Mr. Jones was the recipient of a handsome chair from the members of his congregation.

The fox hunt Christmas was participated in by about a dozen horsemen, but the disagreeable weather prevented a large turnout. The fox was given ten minutes start when the cavalcade were off full tilt, and after running as far as the old site of Ely's store paymaster Hoxie overtook and carried off the prize. Mr. R. Pollitzer took the part of the fox and had his horse been a little faster the sport would have been prolonged beyond the twenty minutes the run lasted.

The two phosphate companies here are doing a large business and getting out as present from our waters a very superior article of rock. The coming summer is expected to develop a very large business in our midst. A company is being organized in Barnwell and Aiken to dig rock in some of our stream beds, the headquarters of which will be in Beaufort. The cost of transporting the rock with the present facilities is about $2.50 per ton which readily sells in its crude state for $6.

The British bark Pretty Jeannine arrived at Scheper's wharf yesterday, 27 days from Jamaica in ballast bound for Bull River. The ballast consists of 25 tons of limestone which is to be put on our streets. It is customary for vessels bound for Bull and Ogeechee rivers to be obliged to lay in the stream for from a week to a month before they have an opportunity to discharge ballast, and as the lay days begin when they are ready to receive cargo they are at the mercy of the phosphate companies. The Jeannine will be ready to receive her cargo as soon as she gets there and consequently will have quick dispatch.

Last Thursday while Abner Respectable was turning over the sand on the bluff near the toll gate he was horrified to discover a skeleton and hastened to inform Dr. Johnson of the fact. The Dr. visited the spot and found the remains of what was supposed to be a white man. The body was lying on the right side with the arm underneath, the legs bent as in sleep, and the conclusion reached was that the man had lain down under the bank and had been killed while asleep by the sand caving in on him. In the pockets were found a small sum of money and a knife, the latest date of the coin being 1862, showing that the man must have been buried after the Federal troops occupied Beaufort. The place where the remains were found were adjoining the old Confederate battery and the high bank that caused the death of the man was thrown up to form the battery.

The crew of the U. S. Ship New Hampshire in our harbor were paid off on Monday last their back pay which had been diverted from its proper source by ex-Sec. Robeson and was provided for by the late session of Congress. Seventy-nine blue jackets received in the aggregate over $11,000. The men are allowed to come ashore in squads of 20 at a time and generally return to the ship without a cent, never mind how much they bring up. A large part of this money is spent in the stores of some of our respectable merchants and is a great help to the business of the town, but generally after making his necessary purchases Jack is relieved of the balance of his funds and is carried aboard ship in a comatose condition and pockets turned wrong side out.

Our merchants were made happy on Monday by a very heavy trade, hundreds of colored people being in town to make their Christmas purchases. The dry goods stores were packed and the extra help on that day was entirely insufficient to wait on the multitudes.

Mr. Whitman received just in time a large assortment of plated ware of new and elegant designs which was the envy of the impecunious who were only permitted to gaze on the array of pretty things from a distance, as it were. He still has a good supply of everything in his line and those who want to make New Years presents can be accommodated.

Mr. Harms store was the centre of attraction for those in search of toys but the great crowd that filled his place all day must have kept as many out as were inside. Mr. H. always has the largest stock of toys in Beaufort and knows how to make an attractive display of his goods. As many will make presents New Years they will find that Mr. Harms replenishes as fast as the customers carry away the toys and other gift goods.

Mr. Odell's attractive store, as usual, was patronized by the hungry as well as those desiring to purchase presents. His rush has lasted for a week and still continues. A reinforcement of clerks was a necessity in this establishment and the amount of cakes, candies and fruit sold was immense. In the rear of the store was displayed a choice selection of articles suitable for gifts and the customers who invaded the room were not without purchases of the wares on exhibition to a large amount.

A love of pretty articles of vertu led many to enter Dr. Stuart's attractive establishment, and those that followed the impulse were glad indeed, for the selection of perfumery, and pretty toilet and mantel ornaments was a pleasure to the beholder and a triple pleasure to whoever became a purchaser.

Port Royal.

The Alexander has on board 2,664 bales.

The press compressed 863 bales on Friday and Saturday for the Calvert.

Christmas was duly celebrated and Mayor Friend heard excuses from sixteen drunks yesterday.

The Calvert sailed on Sunday with 1,019 bales of cotton, 120 casks turpentine, 320 barrels resins and 48 casks of clay for New York.

The Dallas sailed Friday but could only take 595 bales cotton, leaving 1,000 more still on the wharf to-day.

Sleeping cars are now run through from Augusta to Jacksonville over the Port Royal and Atlantic and Gulf Railroads.

The officers of the railroad have removed to their new quarters and are as comfortably fixed as they could wish. The new building is quite an ornament to the town.

The office of the Port Royal Docks, Warehousing etc. Company has been removed from Port Royal to 90 Broadway, New York.

The following vessels arrived since our last issue with guano to the railroad agent: Schooner E. R. Emerson, Sears, from Wood's Hole, 5295 bags; Schooner Kate G. Robinson, Price, from Philadelphia, 3200 bags; Schr. A. V. Bergson, from New York with plaster for August.

For a musical young lady, no more appropriate New Year's gift of trifling cost can be found than a years subscription to some valuable musical monthly. Send your Sweetheart, Friend, Cousin, Sister, or Daughter the Southern Musical Journal for 1878, and see what a pleasant surprise its monthly visits will give her. The Music in the Journal is now of a superior character and will save music buyers many a dollar during the year. $1.25 secures the Journal for a year with a premium of Sheet Music (subscriber's choice) to amount of $1.00. Specimen copy for a 3 cent stamp. Address the publishers, LUDEN & BATES, Savannah, Ga.

The act of March 6, 1872, allows the inspector twenty five cents for every ton of fertilizers inspected and branded, and seven and a half per cent. on all amounts paid the State as royalty for the privilege of digging and mining phosphate deposits. During the year ending October 1, 1877, the State received from phosphate royalty $75,898. Upon this amount the inspector's commission would be $5,691. The fee for inspecting and branding fertilizers ought to amount to about $11,000 more, as over 45,000 tons of fertilizers were shipped from Charleston last year. —News and Courier.

One Cent A Day.

Economy is the order of the hour, and every expenditure, however small, is expected to give a return in full value. Every family requires one good, reliable family newspaper. If such an article can be procured for less than one cent for each working day of the year, we are not aware of it. A Family Newspaper should contain a carefully prepared summary of all the news of the day, both Religious and Secular; and if arranged so that the two departments may be separated and read by two individuals at the same time, so much the better. The Family Newspaper should have attractive reading and information for the various members of a household. Some portion of the paper should be devoted, every week, to religious and moral improvement, to current secular news, to agriculture, commerce, markets, finance, to general literature, &c. with a special department for the young. Above all, the Family Newspaper should be perfectly pure, and free from any contaminating influences in its reading matter or in its advertisements. Two such attentions cannot be paid to this feature, when the press is flooding the country with so much that is vile and pernicious. To crown all the Family Newspaper should be untrammelled by any affiliation with sect or party, and should be free to give all the good news from and about all the world. If such a Family Newspaper can be had for one cent a day, it should be taken by every family in the land.

Such a Family Newspaper in every respect, we find in the NEW YORK OBSERVER, now commencing its fifty-sixth volume. Progressive, comprehensive, sound, reliable, pure, it is just what is needed in your household. Send $3.15 for a year to THE NEW YORK OBSERVER, 37 Park Row, New York. Sample copies are sent free.

The colored men in Augusta have organized a company to build a cotton mill with a capital $100,000.

Gov. Drew, of Florida, has been arrested for cutting timber on lands belonging to the United States. The Governor says the charge is false.

The steamer Huntsville, Captain Faircloth, from Savannah December 16, for New York was burned at sea December 19. No lives lost.

Patterson's family contradict the rumor that he is about to resign. They say as soon as his health is sufficiently recovered he will probably go to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania.

The Legislature has passed a resolution requesting the United States to establish a line of mail steamers between Charleston and the West Indies and South America.

Jacksonville folks are indulging in strawberries at a dollar per quart, raised in the open air near there.
